"Andy - your YouTube videos totally sold me - yours are the best international ballroom instruction clips I have seen, and I've seen a lot - you have a style for teaching that succeeds in balancing looking professional without the "exaggeration" of style you see in professional competitions, which makes it difficult to relate to as a "social dancer". Your teaching tips are done just right - you add a couple of tips re style and steps at different times so that learning is not an overload initially, yet they cover all the aspects anyone would need to know re dance to dance like a pro. You and Wendy make dance learning approachable for us new dancers. Thanks."

"I just finished watching all of your DVDs and I think they're great. I've been able to maximize my dance lessons by having prior knowledge of the steps and whenever I'm having difficulties they're a perfect reference. "

"My fiancé Mateja and I are truly excited and eager to receive your DVD. We are getting married in July 2009 and want to have a memorable first dance together. Mateja did extensive research online in trying to find the proper instructional video to help us get on our way. She found examples on YouTube that were particularly helpful. It seems that the details you provide in breaking down each particular step will help immensely. We are looking forward to receiving your DVD!!!

By the way: I love your explanations in English, though I speak German, I will understand every single word because you speak so clear...if you would have a Dancing school here in Austria I will definitely visit your courses...so I hope, I will learn it by your DVDs...

"My husband and I were very impressed by your instructional clip on u-tube. It is clear and broken down into steps that are easy to follow. The information conveyed is pertinent, complimented by your physical demonstration of the steps. We have both taught in the past and you are an excellent teacher, as I am sure your staff at the Grand Ballroom must be."

"Hi Mr and Mrs Wong greetings to you from my beautiful island Barbados in the West Indies. I was browsing the net for ballroom dancing videos or cds and ran into your website, I was totally surprised to see the quality of teaching from your videos which is fantastic, Mind you I'm doing bronze now having graduated from beginners, have been ballroom dancing just about 6 months and loving it that's why I want to get some cds on most of the rythmns that I practice with your unique teaching..."

"Our daughter gave us your Silver Cha Cha for Xmas-I mean we've been doing it for 2 years. Now we realize we may benefit from your Bronze. We have ordered both and looking forward to correcting all our bad habits. We love the way you present your moves and are looking forward to the new DVDs."

My wife and I purchased a number of your instructional DVD's a couple of months ago. I just wanted to let you know that we are extremely pleased and most impressed with the quality of your instruction. The details for each step are crystal clear and being able to see what you are ultimately working towards in terms of a routine for each dance is just what is needed (you can see the destination as well as each step of the route to get there - great!!). I had done a lot of research before buying your product (and had been disappointed with other products), and I just wanted to congratulate you on having put together such superior material.
